

Join Capital Region Earth Force for a Celebration of the Chesapeake Bay Watershed & Its Influence on the Watershed's Cultures

Date: April 24, 2006

Time: 9:30 am – 1:30 pm

Location: Waterfront Park – Immediately Adjacent to the Potomac River
1A Prince Street
Alexandria, Virginia

Youth Summit Partners Include:

Accokeek Foundation (National Colonial Farm)
Office of Historic Alexandria - Alexandria Archaeology
Alexandria Seaport Foundation
Blacks of the Chesapeake
Claude Moore Park
Daniel Firehawk
Hidden Oaks Nature Center
Jefferson Patterson Park and Museum
Maryland Watermen's Association
Potomac Overlook Nature Center
Wild Art

During the afternoon session, Capital Region Earth Force students will share their civic action projects with their peers and invited dignitaries.

Details:

- Students should bring a bag lunch.
- Students should be in groups of roughly twenty with the appropriate adult supervision.
- This is an outside event. Students should dress appropriately.

Please direct all questions and reservations to Jen McDonnell at (703) 519-6867 or jmcdonnell@earthforce.org

Earth Force would like to thank the National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration, Staples Foundation for Learning & The Virginia Environmental Endowment for their support of the Summit.